INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF YOUNG LAWYERS

Welcome to the AIJA House

The AIJA House is the global headquarters of the International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA), located on the prestigious Avenue de Tervueren in Brussels and strategically positioned close to the European quarters and international embassies. This is also AIJA members' house, offering them a home for work and networking.

As an AIJA member, you can take advantage of AIJA House's state-of-the-art office space with premium technology equipment and member-only facilities. Whether you require an occasional base in the capital for your business trip, or you need a convenient space for client meetings, AIJA House welcomes you to work, network and/or relax with other members or clients.

"The AIJA House is a way for AIJA to give real value back to the members, a beautiful office space which is the face of the association and a members' meeting point - this is the AIJA House."

Giuseppe Marletta
Association Manager, AIJA

Your Office

AIJA prides itself in providing valuable member benefits including facilities and services that encourage collaboration and networking. As a member of AIJA, you are able to book meeting and working spaces at the AIJA House.
