

November Conference 2006
Buenos Aires, Argentina
16 - 19 November 2006

Many pleasant surprises await those who wish to attend the AIJA's November, 2006 Conference to be held in the City of Buenos Aires, Argentina, the most European and one of the largest and most beautiful cities of South America.

The cosmopolitan nature of the City is fully apparent in its numerous languages, lexicons, fashions and cultural activities, as well as in the varying architectural styles of its buildings and in the sharp contrast between its various districts.

You should not miss the opportunity to attend an excellent scientific program oriented to the international practice of young lawyers, whose subject will deal with negotiations and drafting of international contracts between corporations and/or individuals belonging to different social and commercial cultures, and also a fascinating social program.

For those of you who can take a few days off, pre and post Conference tours will be organized to visit many of the famous tourist attractions Argentina has to offer.

The organizing committee integrated by Juan Carlos Grosso, Roberto Viscomi, Carlos Mateucci, Roberto Luzi Crivellini, Matías Vagedes, Guillermo Malm Green and Alejandro G. Gorbato welcome you to Buenos Aires and we are quite confident that you will keep long lasting memories of AIJA's November, 2006 Conference in Buenos Aires.
